Eight-Screen, Top-of-the-Line Theater Complex in New York City

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEW YORK, NY (AUG 24, 2017) - Landmark Theatres is set to open its new theatre, “The Landmark at 57 West,” that will span the block between 11th and 12th Avenues on 57th Street in New York City. Landmark is recognized for exhibiting all genres of film including independent, foreign language, documentaries and quality major film releases.

“We are excited to be opening a premiere theater and creating a new destination for cinema. The Landmark at 57 West will provide a top-tier entertainment experience for the sophisticated moviegoer who enjoys a wide array of interesting and quality films,” said Ted Mundorff, President and CEO of Landmark Theatres.

The Landmark at 57 West will not only boast dramatic views of the Manhattan skyline along the Hudson River, but the interior will appeal to film aficionados and neighborhood movie-goers alike. The theatre has eight auditoriums with wall to wall screens and laser projection, as well as oversized ultra-plush leather chairs or electric recliner seats with footrests which can be reserved through advance ticketing.

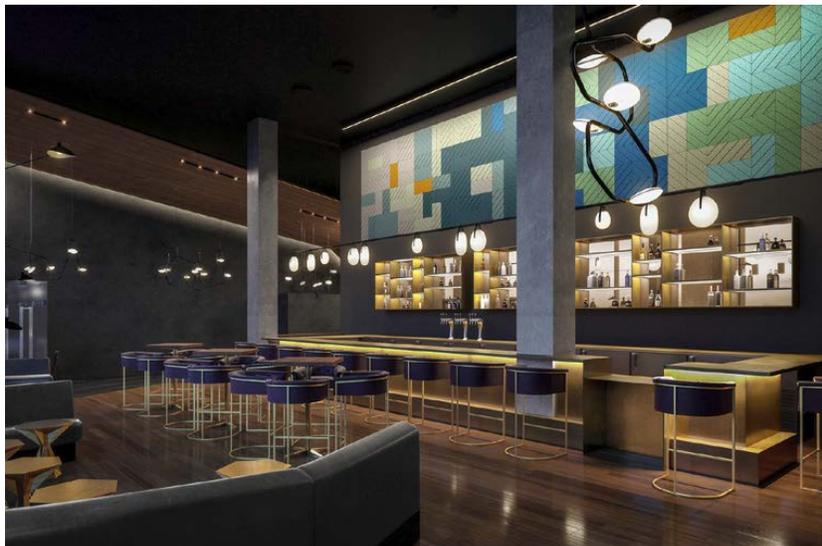

In addition to fresh, hot popcorn with real butter and Eisenberg Gourmet Beef Franks, the concession stand will feature a wide array of items. Local favorites will include Melt Ice Cream Sandwiches, Sweet & Sara Vegan Smores, Bronx Pretzels, Sugar and Plumm Macarons, Two Boots Pizza, NYC Diesel Blend from Native Coffee Roasters, Fat Witch Brownies and Treat House Marshmallow & Crispy Rice Treats.

The theatre also has a full bar, JD’s Place, which will feature craft beers on tap, an extensive wine list, premium liquor and craft cocktails as well as assorted salads, pulled pork sliders and tacos.

“Today, more than ever, audiences have discriminating tastes and high expectations. We take great pride in our customer service and delivering the best in film and are confident we will exceed our customers’ demands,” Mundorff said.
